Intra-Program Transfer (IPT)	Number	Page
	40-183.A	1 of 1

Revision Date:
November 29, 2016

Background:
Foster care (FC) dependent children who are placed with relatives whom are not eligible to receive federal or state foster care payments may qualify for other cash benefits until age 18 or 21 as a non-minor dependent (NMD) under the state-funded Extended Foster Care (EFC) Program.

Caretaker relatives of foster care children may also choose to receive CalWORKs assistance rather than Foster Care (AFDC-FC) payments. Their decision is documented by the Foster Care HSS.

Policy:
40-183.A.1 Referral from Foster Care
An Intra-Program Transfer (IPT) referral will be forwarded to the Family Resource Center (FRC) based on the caretaker relative's zip code.

Residency for the child is established by the court of jurisdiction. All IPT Referrals for children placed with relatives residing outside of San Diego County, including children placed with relatives outside of the state of California, shall be forwarded to the North Central FRC for processing.

40-183.A.2 Fraud Referrals
CalWORKs staff shall exempt needy and non-needy caretaker relatives from a fraud referral when Child Welfare Services (CWS) has placed the child with the relative. Caretaker relatives shall not be subject to an investigation unless there is an actual basis on which to suspect fraud.
