Deprivation Due to Death	Number	Page
	41-400.B	1 of 1

Revision Date:
August 1, 2024

Background:
Deprivation of parental support or care is a separate and specific eligibility factor for CalWORKs. A child's deprivation is based on the status of their natural or adoptive parent(s). There is no CalWORKs eligibility unless deprivation requirements are met.

Purpose:
This section outlines the CalWORKs policies on deprivation due to death. The purpose of this revision is for sunset review and reformatting to current standards. There is no policy change.

Policy:
Deprivation due to death exists if either parent of a child is deceased. If one or both parents are deceased, the Assistance Unit (AU) would not be subject to child support enforcement requirements.

Customers have the responsibility to provide the verification to establish deprivation. The following are acceptable verifications of the death of a parent:

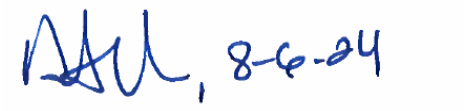

- A copy of the death certificate.
- An award letter from the Social Security Administration based on the death of the parent.
- A newspaper obituary of the parent's death.
- Other reliable documentation.

A sworn statement is acceptable verification when no other evidence can be obtained. Existing verification available in any case record may be used. When credible evidence to establish the death of a parent is unobtainable, staff will evaluate for deprivation based on absence and a referral to the Local Child Support Agency (LCSA) will be completed.
