CalWORKs Program Guide Special Notice

CalWORKs Time Limit Exemption for Recipients Living in Indian Country with an Unemployment Rate of 50% or Higher	Number	Page
	26-03	1 of 1

Effective Date:
08/01/2026

Background:
Individuals residing in federally recognized Indian Country areas are eligible for CalWORKs Time on Aid (TOA) exemption.

Purpose:
The purpose of this Special Notice is to provide staff an updated list of Indian Country areas.

Policy:
The qualified Indian Country areas change annually. Attachment A contains the list of Indian Country areas in California that have an unemployment rate of 50% or higher during calendar year 2025. Individuals who lived in these areas during 2025 qualify for the TOA exemption for those specific months they received CalWORKs. To receive an exemption, documentation must be provided to verify their residence during the reported time frame.

Desk Aid – Eligible Indian Country Areas in San Diego County for Time on Aid Exemption provides a compiled listing of the qualified Indian Country areas in San Diego County that met the exemption requirements from 1998 to 2025. This desk aid is housed in CalWORKs SharePoint.
